

Dear parents,

Circular on 2018 Hong Kong Youth Reading Literature and Art Exchange Competition

The school has always attached importance to the development of students' literary arts and has actively participated in various open competitions. The collective recital competition not only enhances students' self-confidence, but also builds up their teamwork spirit. The juvenile recitation of literary and art competitions in Hong Kong will soon be held. Because your child has performed well in recitation, the school hereby recommends he or she to represent the school in this competition. Details of the competition are as follows:
